NATURE AND PURPOSE OF THE PROCEEDINGS

In her complaint filed on October 9, 2014, Plaintiff Helga Glock (“Ms. Glock”) alleges among other things that:

1) Defendants engaged in various fraudulent and illegal conduct for the purpose of taking money from Ms. Glock and injuring her.

2) Defendants stole and laundered money using a tangled web of fictive legal relationships, offshore business entities, and international financial transactions in violation of the Federal and Georgia RICO acts.

3) Defendants implemented a scheme whose goal was to siphon, divert, and hide monies and assets away from the view and reach of Ms. Glock.

4) Defendants documented pretextual corporate acts, titles, contracts, and legal relationships by issuing and paying sham invoices for transactions without economic substance and created “dummy” corporate entities and structures which lacked any valid business purpose.

5) Defendants violated criminal laws prohibiting the transmission or receipt of stolen goods; theft by taking; theft by deception; theft by conversion; theft by receiving stolen property; forgery; mail fraud; wire fraud; money laundering and engaging in monetary transactions using property derived from specified unlawful activities; and racketeering.

Plaintiff is asking the Court to hold Defendants to account, in compensatory and punitive damages, attorneys’ fees and costs, and other relief, because of the harm caused to her by reason of these alleged acts by Defendants.
